

NAPLES BEACH HOTEL & GOLF CLUB

The Naples Beach Hotel & Golf Club in Florida has a four-diamond AAA rating.

Third night free at Naples, Fla., resort on Gulf of Mexico

THE GAZETTE

The recently renovated Naples Beach Hotel & Golf Club on the Gulf of Mexico in southwest Florida is offering a third night free from May 27 to Sept. 30, based on availability. On U.S. holiday weekends (around May 26, July 4 and Sept. 1), the deal is that the fourth night is free.

Given a four-diamond rating by AAA, the Naples Beach Hotel is known as an outstanding resort, particularly for families. It is a few blocks from the centre of Naples, which has Mediterranean-style architecture and opportunities for upscale shopping, dining and gallery-hopping.

The beach resort has renovated significantly over the past six years, updating its 319 rooms and suites and its gulf-front restaurant, and adding a water complex of two pools and two whirlpools.

The hotel includes a championship golf course, a comprehensive spa, a tennis centre and several restaurants, all on site. The Sunset Beach Bar & Grill is famous for its views. The Beach Kids Club, with all-day or half-day activities year-round for ages five to 12, is free. At an extra fee, guests can rent beach lounge chairs, paddleboards and kayaks.

For more details, call 800-237-7600 or 239-261-2222, or visit naplesbeachhotel.com. Rates fluctuate according to availability and the room's view, approximately $239 to $369 U.S. per night (with the third night free); suites cost more. Rates include valet or self-parking, the Beach Kids Club, fitness centre and pools. Beach rentals, spa treatments, golf and tennis are extras.
