BEAU MONDE GATHERS AT HÔTEL DES ARTS SAIGON

ROCHELLE LASH Hotel Intel

If Ho Chi Minh City in Vietnam has an A-list of glitterati, I am certain they are all regulars at the sumptuous Hôtel Des Arts Saigon.

This very-in-vogue establishment radiates the glamour and mystique of the long-ago era of French Indochina, yet today's beautiful people — fashionistas, Instagram influencers and young entrepreneurs — are making the scene. Hôtel Des Arts Saigon is a socially-charged world that will peak with a late night of revelry during Tet, the Vietnamese new year, Jan. 22.

Ho Chi Minh City has become an international crossroads, drawing nearly 10 million foreign business and leisure travellers a year, many of them seeking the tinselled, cosmopolitan experiences that they have enjoyed in Paris, Singapore or New York.

Hôtel des Arts Saigon delivers all that, plus the excitement, romance and exotic allure that prevails when East meets West. Named both Asia's Leading Lifestyle and Business Hotel at the World Travel Awards, it is hyperchic, with the exclusive air of a boutique charmer, but honoured for its substantial hospitality facets — exquisite French-inspired interiors, intuitive service, a dazzling rooftop pool, superlative cuisine and extreme mixology. The style: Hôtel des Arts Saigon is part of the MGallery Collection, an Accor brand of more than 100 properties worldwide that embody local culture and history.

Besides its own Franco-Indochinese influence, the hotel is in the most vibrant area of Ho Chi Minh City, near elaborate architectural landmarks such as Notre Dame Cathedral, the Opera House and the Saigon Central Post Office, an 1890s beauty that blends neoclassical European architecture and Asian ornamentation.

Hôtel des Arts itself is a timeless museum-like treasure. It's graced with art nouveau, art deco and Asian decor, as well as Chinoiserie and hundreds of paintings, and antiques from the owner's collection, plus fine furnishings and craftsmanship by Vietnamese artisans.

Food and drink: Executive chef Ivan Barone delivers thrilling cuisine in four venues, each with a different personality and look.

The Social Club Restaurant (23rd floor) is a design and culinary sensation that is the hottest table in Ho Chi Minh City. It has a funky, cool vibe of a lounge with low-rise tables and the whimsy of unmatched dining chairs. A private dining area is set up like a library in a gentlemen's club.

The Social Club has a decidedly euro focus, serving foie gras, pork terrine, lobster cocotte, duck and bouillabaisse, plus truffle pasta, burrata and tomatoes, as well as international riffs on lamb, cod, quail and sides like mushrooms with yuzu. The grill produces luscious Tomahawk steaks, rack of lamb, ribeyes and Wagyu striploins, all heightened with grilled bone marrow, garlic confit and salsa. It's gastronomy in a buzzy, upscale setting, with most main courses priced at about $32 to $48, and lobster and choice steaks about $65 to $75.

One floor up is the Social Club Rooftop Bar, where the city's beau monde alights for lychee martinis and spring rolls, or champagne and oysters. The skyline is captivating at sunset and also after dark when the city lights twinkle.

Saigon Kitchen is casual, sporting an upbeat design of ceramic walls and colourful chairs, all inspired by street food markets. There is a huge à la carte menu, but Saigon Kitchen is known for amazing buffets with western and Asian delicacies for breakfast and lunch daily, plus on Fridays and Saturday evenings, the famous seafood extravaganza.

Sunday brunch is a major event — both social and culinary, and you can opt for unlimited wine or unlimited champagne, with some party packages revelling on from noon until 5 p.m.

Café des Beaux Arts is an elegant salon with French-inspired décor of pearl velvet club chairs and antique furniture. This is the place for sophisticated lunches, all-day drinks and dining, and afternoon tea or coffee, serenaded by a pianist.

The guest rooms are bathed in colours of rich cream with shimmering sheer curtains, curved windows and carved ceilings. Fancy details include gilt-edge mirror frames and lamps. It's all meant to evoke a more formal time, euro-style.

On the totally modern front, all 168 rooms and suites have 50-inch TVs with streaming, extra telephones in the bathrooms, fancy writing desks, bottled water and a choice of
