SUTTON LODGE FOR THE FAMILY THAT SKIS TOGETHER

Husband-wife team takes over, renovates Le Montagnard, Auberge/Hôtel et Chalets

ROCHELLE LASH Hotel Intel

Husband and wife Simon Sanscartier and Maxime Désourdy are expanding their Eastern ways than one. On Feb. 9, they welcomed their third daughter. Ollie - baby sister to 18-month-old Alexis and three-year-old Raph. The other big development is that they have become hoteliers, taking over the picturesque mountain domain of Le Montagnard, Auberge/Hôtel et Chalets, about two kilometres from Mont Sutton.

It has a variety of well-maintained lodging — simple, but fully renovated over the past year. The attractions are its considerable leisure facilities and majestic Eastern Townships location, high on a hill overlooking a northern stretch of the Appalachian Mountains. It's all about tranquillity and gorgeous boreal views. The scene: Le Montagnard covers a large swath of land, and there is a lot to do. In winter, guests can use the hot tub, a hiking trail that borders the Sutton River, an outdoor fireplace, and a yard for toddlers' tobogganing or simply romping in the snow.

In summer, playtime is about the heated outdoor pool, soccer, badminton and volleyball. Indoors, the auberge has a game room and there is a wellness aspect with the new sauna

There's no stopping the dynamic couple behind this property. The blueprints are done for an outdoor barbecue kitchen that will cater to poolside parties, and a lounge for après-ski drinks and bites.

Le Montagnard soon will run group bus tours through the Townships' vineyards, microbreweries and antique routes. When available, there will be a shuttle to Mont Sutton.

"Our relatives are all skiers and Maxime and I are both racers, so we're excited to be connected with Mont Sutton," Sanscartier said. "We really enjoy hosting families and we absolutely want to keep Le Montagnard affordable.

"It's also the perfect environment for unique events in a beautiful natural setting. Maxime is passionate about hospitality, and we already have hosted several weddings and corporate retreats."

Lodging: With accommodations for about 120 people (up to 160 in a tight squeeze), Le Montagnard is super flexible for small or large parties of visitors. The main lodge has two suites and the annex buildings have 12 studios and nine condos, plus there are four large chalets for between 10 and 36 people.

Almost every unit has a fireplace, and a balcony overlooking the forest and the mountains.

"All of our studios, chalets and condos have full kitchens," Sanscartier said. "This is a money-saver, and so important for families who want to cook 'at home.' "

Guests can order a continental breakfast of croissants, bagels, vogurt, fruit muesli and cheeses, either served or delivered to their

Every space at Le Montagnard is well maintained and thought out, with good bedside lighting, wine glasses, and bathrobes for that dash to the hot tub or pool. Everything is new — flat-screen TVs, beds and bedding, and the bathrooms have been updated.

Désourdy also has a way with interior decoration. The lodgings are done in serene grey and white, with velvet, suede and linen textures adding warmth, and vintage ski photography recalling Sutton's great mountain traditions.

Mont Sutton: The family-friendly destination will have activities for spring break in March, such as a treasure hunt on the trails and a ski-week camp.

Bar Le Tucker, Sutton's après hangout, has karaoke on some Wednesdays and, until the season's end, open mic on Thursdays and live music on Fridays. March 4 is the bar's anniversary IF YOU GO
