ANANTARA DUBLIN A REFLECTION OF IRELAND ITSELF

Beautiful spa experience awaits weary travellers

ROCHELLE LASH

Hotel Intel

The newly rebranded Anantara The Marker Dublin delivers superlative hospitality with an appealing mix of cosmopolitan energy and restorative tranquil-

It's an architecture standout overlooking the Grand Canal Basin of Dublin Bay that relaunched in 2023 after a makeover of the Marker Hotel's lobby, 187 guest rooms and suites, and the addition of the new restaurant Forbes Street by Gareth Mullins.

Anantara is the only five-star property in the trendy, upscale neighbourhood of Docklands, so its chic restaurant, fashionable bars and deluxe accommodations are often booked solid. Bentleys and Rolls-Royces idle out front as valets ferry Rimowa luggage and heaps of shopping bags from Dublin's famous Grafton Street. The rooftop bar has compelling 360-degree views of the Wicklow Mountains and the Irish Sea. The Marker Bar buzzes from morning espresso to evening cocktails.

In spite of the action, the guest rooms are pin-drop quiet because the hotel faces the Grand Canal Square, a park and promenade.

Irish spirit: Anantara is modern, edgy and international - but

The posh Anantara The Marker Dublin Hotel has a singular location overlooking the Grand Canal in the innovative Docklands district. At left, is the Bord Gáis Energy Theatre. ANANTARA THE MARKER DUBLIN HOTEL its essence is Irish. "The hotel resonates with elements indigenous to Ireland," said Derek A. Brennan, a manager who is a connoisseur of Emerald Isle lore. "The exterior geometric panels recall the Cliffs of Moher, and the interior cantilevered ceiling reflects the basalt formations of the Giant's Causeway (a craggy northern coastal route)."

Restaurant supervisors wear handsome Irish tweed hacking jackets and the beautiful cashmere and lambswool bed throws are by Foxford of County Mayo.

Neighbourhood: Docklands is a former industrial area that has boomed, with futuristic glass buildings towering above 18th-century brick warehouses. Also called Silicon Docks, it's home to high-tech heavies like Google, TikTok, Meta, Ancestry and LinkedIn. It's great for a walkabout, cycling, a boat tour or even paddleboarding on the Grand Canal. The prestigious Bord Gáis Energy Theatre, next door to Anantara, is staging La Bohème by the Irish National Opera this fall, The Lion King and, in 2024, Hamilton.

Experiences: Anantara organizes unconventional, authentic Irish escapades (fees apply). "Wild swimming" is an excursion to hidden coves and beaches of the Irish Sea, guided by a marathoner. Another outing is to Ireland's famous horse races, with insider tips by a trainer.

Gastronomes might tackle a cooking class on Irish soda bread or join Spice Spoons, a jaunt on a fishing boat hosted by chef sommelier Maxim Prokopenko. Mullins expresses his Irish roots with cockles 'n' mussels, Guinness bread, Colcannon mashed potatoes, roast lamb and modern twists on Irish beef tartare and veg dishes like roasted celeriac with hazelnuts.

Dining: Forbes Street is lively and easygoing, with an open kitchen and tantalizing displays of oysters (called dainties) and excellent wines, including many superior Corovin options by the glass, chosen by master

Mullins is proud of his local ingredients, the best of land and sea. "We know every farm, river, garden and artisan producer."

Forbes Street's tour de force is aged beef - rib-eye, filet mignon or whiskey-cured T-bone — by revered butcher John Stone of County Longford, who has an MBE (an honour of the British Empire). Seafood from Irish waters might be tiger prawns, turbot, scallops or sea trout pastrami with Teeling Whiskey crème fraîche.

Breakfast is a don't-miss for blueberry pancakes and eggs Benedict, with sides of thick-cut Irish bacon, bread and butter
