

Country Roads: Code's Mill Inn

BY ROCHELLE LASH, SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE DECEMBER 16, 2010

Code's Mill Inn in Perth was designed by architect John Stewart.

Scroll down for Rochelle's column.

Editor's note: Some of the details might have changed since the original publication date. Please check with the establishment before heading out!

Original publication date: May 15, 2010

If you go

Perth is a three-hour, 30-minute drive from Montreal. Take Highways 40 and 417 to just past Ottawa and Route 7 south to Perth.

Code's Mill Inn & Spa: 82 Peter St., Perth, 866-906-0082, 613-326-0082, www.codesmillinn.com.

Price: Rooms and suites cost $149 to $259 weekdays (add $20 on Friday and Saturday) for two people, including continental breakfast, parking, wireless Internet and the Alley Cats fitness club across the street. Rideau Cruise package starts at $160 per person, double occupancy, and includes breakfast, lunch and the boat ride.

For tourism information: 613-267-3200, www.perthchamber.com, or Rideau Heritage Route Tourism Association, 613-389-4783, www.rideauheritageroute.ca.

The sleek and contemporary Code's Mill on the Park Inn & Spa is a striking addition to a quiet, small town.

The hotel was designed by John Stewart, an architect who had worked on a project called Main Street, which brought new life to about 200 communities across Canada. On assignment in Perth, Ont., Stewart fell in love with the area, opened his own office and started to revitalize the historic core, one

